

JENNY JETS TO TOP TEN TITLE SPOT

Jenny Wakeman, of the Barnsley Road Runners Club won the South Yorkshire Ladies' 10k Championship with a marvellous run of 38-49 in the Rockingham Road Race on Sunday.

In 76th place overall, she also led Janet Heeley and Margaret Martin to first team place in both the Rockingham 10k and the South Yorkshire Championships that were incorporated in the event.

Martin, in 127th place overall in 42-55, was second lady in the Championship and Heeley 124th in 42-36, was second lady veteran, Anne Bennett taking third lady veteran's place with her time of 43-02 for 128th place.

The Toad Club's excellent day was continued by Robert Elstone, who was third in the South Yorkshire Championships and fourth overall in 33-05.

Keith Binney was second Championship veteran and 15th overall in 34-22.

Race winner and South Yorkshire men's champion was Chris Maddocks of Sheffield in 31-49.

